ד"ר ירושלם ת"י דאנא שט

Without question, the greatest issue facing our nation is the lack of connection to the Boreh Olam. This is not a problem limited to the non-observant, but one that is the norm sadly among the tzibbur of Shomrei Mitzvos.

But Torah is being studied on the highest levels, but so many of those budding Talmidei Chachomim have little interest in their davening.

The Teen's Siddur is a serious attempt at addressing the issue. Rav Yitzhak Fugenbaum has decades of experience in Jewish education and especially inspiring students to live emunah. He has his finger on the pulse and knows how to speak to today's generation.

I am confident this siddur will awaken in many teens a real interest in davening that will grow with them as they get on in life.

May the author have many ^{more} years of teaching, training and inspiring, and bringing the geulah sheleima.
